

Reach Out to Horses® presents...

A Day of Holistic Horsemanship with Anna Twinney

The universal communication between horse and human, known as horse whispering, includes body language, intuition and an understanding of the laws of energy. It also requires an in-depth understanding of the horse's temperament and character, and a careful balance of patience, kindness, affection and respect.

Spend the Day Learning the Foundations of the Reach Out to Horses® Program!

Through demonstrations, lectures, and hands-on exercises, you will explore the very same techniques that Anna has used, all around the world, to build genuine trust-based partnerships with thousands of horses.
